NOTICE TO APPLICANT:

Your application for membership to the Berlin Yacht Club entitles you access to and use of the facilities of the Club, as permitted under the Constitution and By-Laws of the Club, for the 30-day period during which your application is posted on the official Club Bulletin Board, in the clubhouse. During this period, you are encouraged to use the facilities and to meet the members, especially the seven Trustees.

A $25 application fee is due upon submittal of your application. This fee is refundable, if your application is not acted on favorably. The Initiation Fee and Annual Dues are as set by the Trustees each year. The Initiation Fee and Dues, for new members elected during the year, are due and payable ten days after notification that an application has been accepted. Depending on the date of acceptance, first year dues may be pro-rated.

You may address your correspondence and submit your $25 application fee to:
